

Advancing Women's Health in Latin America: A Roundtable for Funders and Investors

Investment Opportunities

Please complete by January 15, 2018

We are looking to source potential investment opportunities in women's health in Latin America, for a group of funder/investors who can deploy a range of capital from philanthropic to debt, equity, and quasi equity.

If you have potential investment opportunities to contribute, we would be grateful for you to provide some high-level information about that we will share confidentiality within a group of accredited/sophisticated grantmakers and investors. Specifically, this material will be used to discuss how our collaborative (in formation) might work together to move more capital more strategically into this arena.

No investment capital is currently circled and available yet. This is to inform the group.

There will be no implied endorsement by this group and the group and no individual in it is acting as a broker/dealer to move capital.

For each opportunity, please provide the information requested below

AND

- An executive summary if available.
- A pitch deck if available.
